

EdSteps Questionnaire: Global Competence

Please complete the following questionnaire.

Question: What is the purpose of the work?

Choose the description(s) that best respond to the statement, "The purpose of this work is to ..."

Answer:

- Explain something
- Tell a story
- Analyze a problem
- Express a point of view
- Describe something that happened
- Offer an artistic interpretation
- Critique a work of art
- Change people's minds
- Propose a solution to a problem
- Create a product
- Reflect on a personal experience
- Other

Question: How was the work created?

Check the description(s) that best respond to the statement, "This work was created by ..."

Answer:

- Working alone
- Working as part of a group

- Working on the project during class time
- Working on the project outside of class time
- Gathering ideas or resources from a local organization or people in the community
- Gathering ideas or resources through the Internet
- Interacting with people through digital media (e.g. Internet, Skype)
- Using digital tools to create or communicate (e.g. digital camera, podcast)

Question: What are some things that may have influenced the creation of this work?
Check the description(s) that best respond to the statement, "The person who created this work ..."

Answer:

- Learned a lot about world issues and cultures in school
- Studied a second language
- Became interested in world issues and cultures from reading or films
- Interacted with people in other countries via technology
- Has a strong personal interest in learning about the world
- Came from another country to where he/she lives now
- Often hears and/or speaks more than one language at home or in the community
- Has family members or friends from countries other than where he/she lives now
- Has traveled to other countries
- Has had people from other countries with whom he or she regularly interacts at home or in the neighborhood